

CORK CITY CENTRE LOOKING CLOSER...

COMPETITION TIME!

Please enter our competition by identifying the location of each of the features. All of the features are on St. Patrick's St. or the side streets surrounding it. Drop your completed entries into City Hall; St. Peter's Cork on North Main St.; or, Central Library on Grand Parade. Alternatively, take a photo of your answers and email it to lookingcloser@corkcity.ie by April 30th 2017.

The first correct answer drawn at random will receive a prize of a €100 voucher, kindly donated by the Cornstore restaurant. Have fun!

1. The lovely mosaic floor welcomes customers to what shop on a pedestrianised street off St Patrick St? _____
2. Do you know at what number the Provincial Bank of Ireland was located? _____
3. This date is written just off Patrick Street but where is it? _____
4. Reimagine Cork have been introducing a Cork dictionary around the city. On what street will you find Rubber Dollies? _____
5. On which street would you find this plaque? _____
6. There are a selection of heads that keep an eye on Patrick's Street pedestrians but do you know where these heads reside? _____
7. Where would you find this clock? _____
8. Where would you find this coat of arms? _____
9. On what roof would you find this metalwork? _____
10. Where would you find this flower? _____
11. Where and when was the second meeting of the G.A.A.? _____
12. What did Mr Foley sculpt in 1863? _____

Name: _____

Contact Number: _____

Contact Email: _____

Answers will be available on www.corkcitycentre.ie after May 4th. One entry per person and terms and conditions available online.

This is an initiative of Cork City Council with thanks to website - ReadingTheSigns.weebly.com for their contribution and assistance.